CONDITIONS OF CARRIAGE

1. DEFINITIONS. "Carrier" means Transcontinental Carriers AB. "Goods" means the cargo described in the Bill of Lading and included in one or more containers. "Container" includes any ISO container.

2. SHIPPER-PACKED CONTAINERS. (a) If a Container is to be used and is not packed by or on behalf of the Carrier, the Carrier shall be liable for loss or damage to the goods in the Container but only if such loss or damage is caused by a defect or deficiency in the Container which is not attributable to the Carrier. (b) The carrier shall not be liable for any loss or damage caused by a defect or deficiency in the Container which is not attributable to the Carrier.

3. SHIPPER'S RESPONSIBILITY. (a) The carrier shall be entitled to make, but not under any obligation, in respect of any additional loss or damage caused by the carrier, to adjust the freight or charge for the loss or damage caused by the carrier. (b) The carrier shall not be liable for any loss or damage caused by the carrier, unless such loss or damage is caused by a defect or deficiency in the Container which is not attributable to the Carrier.

4. SHIPPERS' MERCHANT'S RESPONSIBILITY. (i) The Merchant shall indemnify the Carrier against all consequences thereof. Without prejudice to the foregoing, every such servant, agent and subcontractor of the Carrier shall be under no responsibility whatsoever in respect of such description or particulars.

5. REGULATIONS. (a) The Carrier shall be entitled to make, but not under any obligation, in respect of any additional loss or damage caused by the carrier, to adjust the freight or charge for the loss or damage caused by the carrier. (b) The carrier shall not be liable for any loss or damage caused by the carrier, unless such loss or damage is caused by a defect or deficiency in the Container which is not attributable to the Carrier.

6. SHIPPERS' MERCHANT'S RESPONSIBILITY. (i) The Merchant shall indemnify the Carrier against all consequences thereof.
